

I wish to proclaim my strong objection to any pay rises for mayors and councillors. This is almost criminal during these very tough times. People have lost faith in institutions.

Regards, [REDACTED].