

Victorian Employer Satisfaction and Skills Survey 2017

Barwon South West

Over 12,100 employers responded to the training and skills component of the Victorian Employer Satisfaction and Skills Survey in 2017. Of these, 810 were from the Barwon South - West region. Employers report that skills are important to productivity, but many are facing challenges filling jobs and finding the right applicants with the right skills. These challenges are faced both now, and are expected to continue into the future. However, a high proportion of employers that access training to improve the skills of their workforce report a positive impact on productivity and return on investment. The statistics below reflect the experience of employers from the Barwon South West region compared to the overall Victorian average.

Skills are important to productivity

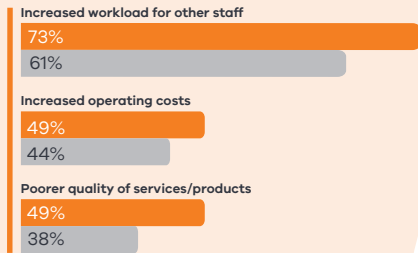

Businesses found that a lack of skills had a medium to high impact on workplace productivity.

Impact of insufficient workforce skills

A lack of skills can increase the workload for other staff, affect operating costs and resulted in poorer quality of service/products.

■ Barwon SW Region ■ Victoria

Managing the skills of the workforce

Employers reported that recruitment was challenging due to candidates not having the right skills or being job ready.

Almost a quarter of employers saw the need to improve the skills of existing staff.

Recruitment challenges

Employers faced recruitment challenges primarily due to a lack of potential candidates, lack of relevant experience and job skills.

■ Barwon SW Region ■ Victoria

Employers' access to training

Employers supported staff training in 2016

Employers mainly used industry associations, private training providers and TAFEs to deliver their training in 2016.

Training contribution and quality

Employers believe that training is a priority in the workplace because it has a positive contribution to productivity and business success.

■ Barwon SW Region ■ Victoria

Skills needed now and for the future

Main skills lacking today and in the next 12 months

The majority of employers identified technical and job specific skills are lacking today or will be lacking in the next 12 months.

■ Barwon SW Region ■ Victoria