2018 Victorian Employers Skills Survey

Northern Metro

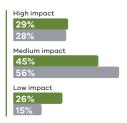

Of the 13,600 employers that responded to Victorian Employer Skills Survey in 2018, 1,290 were located in the Northern Metro region. Employers report that skills are important to productivity, but many are facing challenges filling jobs and finding the right applicants with the right skills. These challenges are faced both now, and are expected to continue into the future. However, a high proportion of employers that access training to improve the skills of their workforce report a positive impact on productivity and return on investment.

The statistics below reflect the experience of employers from the Northern Metro region compared to the overall Victorian average.

Skills are important to productivity

Businesses with a lack of skills found it had a medium impact on workplace productivity.

Impact of insufficient workforce skills

Businesses lacking skills mainly reported the following

Managing the skills of the workforce

Employers reported that recruitment was challenging due to candidates not having the required skills or being job ready.

SKILLS IMPACT

PRODUCTIVITY

Finding job ready candidates

More than a quarter of employers saw the need to improve the skills of existing staff.

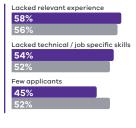

Faced challenges training staff to keep skills up to date

Recruitment challenges

Employers facing recruitment challenges mainly reported applicant related reasons for their difficulties.

64% VIC Employers supported staff

Employers who supported training either utilised external trainers or made provisions for training within the organisation by other staff.

Businesses are concerned they may not have the skills they need for the future

28%

Skills needed now and for the future

Businesses lack the skills they

Businesses believe they have the skills needed for today and for the next 12 months

Training contribution and quality

Employers who supported training agreed it had a positive contribution to productivity and business success.

Positive return

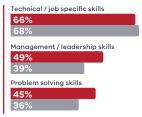

Positive impact Trained staff on productivity are more valuable to the workplace

Quality of provider training was high

Type of skills lacking today and in the next 12 months

Employers who lack the skills today, or expect to over the next year, identified various skills needs.

Northern Metro Region Victoria

Northern Metro Region

Victoria

