Why use multi-factor authentication?

It's more secure than your password alone.
It adds a layer of protection if your password is stolen.
It's easy to set up.
It can deter cybercriminals.

Where should I use MFA?

You should use MFA for your most important accounts, like:

Your email account

Online banking

Social media

Accounts with personal info

Just follow the prompts when you're asked to turn on MFA.

Learn more at vic.gov.au/MFA

VICTORIA
State Government